Présentation de l'éditeur

Born in 1924 in the ancient Persian city of Qazvin, Monir Shahroudy Farmanfaraian spent her childhood in a grand old house replete with stained glass, wall paintings, and nightingales. Coming of age during World War II, she left occupied Iran and audaciously set out for New York, where she was quickly absorbed into the city's thriving avant-garde. In the decades to follow, during successive exiles in Tehran and New York, Farmanfaraian developed an intuitive yet painstakingly crafted artistic practice in mirror mosaic and reverse-painted glass that weds the cosmic patterning of her Iranian heritage with the rhythms of modern Western geometric abstraction. This book is the first substantial survey of Farmanfaraian's acclaimed geometric works, and features an in-depth interview by Hans Ulrich Obrist ; critical essays by Nader Ardalan, Media Farzin, and Eleanor Sims ; warm tributes by Farmanfaraian's admirers Etel Adnan, Siah Armajani, caraballo-farman, Golnaz Fathi, Hadi Hazavei, Susan Hefuna, Aziz Isham, Rose Issa, Faryar Javaherian, Abbas Kiarostami, Shirin Neshat, Donna Stein, and Frank Stella ; an excerpt from The Sense of Unity : The Suf : Tradition in Persian Architecture by Nader Ardalan and Laleh Bakhtiar (1973) ; and an annotated timeline of Farmanfaraian's life by Negar Azimi.
